

Bury Saint Edmund's, March 21, 1794.

At a Meeting of the Grand Juries for the County of Suffolk,

A LETTER having been submitted to their consideration, by Sir CHARLES BUNBURY, which he had received from the Earl of EUSTON, Lord Lieutenant of this County, recommending an Augmentation of the Internal Forces, and proposing various Plans which had been transmitted to him by the Secretary of State, a Subscription was agreed to, for a Fund to be applied to strengthen the Internal Defence of the County of SUFFOLK, in case the Bill now pending, for the Augmentation of the Militia, should pass into a Law.

RESOLVED,

THAT the Lord Lieutenant for this County be requested to appoint a Meeting of the Subscribers, and of such other Persons as are desirous of supporting the Measure, to be held at STOWMARKET on an early Day, as the present Crisis seems to require a speedy and vigorous Increase of the Internal Defence.

THAT Copies of these Resolutions be left with the Bankers, in IPSWICH, BURY ST. EDMUND'S, and the several Market Towns in the said County; and Subscriptions be received by the said Bankers, who are desired to send, to the next Meeting, a List of such Persons as have subscribed at their respective Houses

THAT the High Sheriff be requested, to cause these Proceedings to be inserted in the Ipswich and Bury Papers.

THOMAS MAYNARD,

For CHARLES PURVIS, Esq. Sheriff.
